The categories of governance information we process

- Personal identifiers and contacts, e.g. name, date of birth, contact details and address, photographs, CCTV images

- Characteristics, e.g. gender, any declared criminal convictions, skills and experience
- Governance details, e.g. start date, terms of office, role, pecuniary or business interests held by you or your family members
- Information derived from monitoring IT acceptable use standards
- Recruitment information, e.g. application, identity and right to work checks, copy of passport or similar photographic identification, references.

Why we collect and use governance information

We collect and use your personal information for the following purposes:

- Manage and develop our governor recruitment (appointment and election) process
- Support you in your governance role and meet your training and development needs
- Fulfil our function as a school and deliver services to our community
- Comply with our general safeguarding obligations
- Meet our legal obligations in relation to school governance.

Collecting governance information

We collect your personal information through the governor application and recruitment process, either directly from individuals or sometimes from an external organisation such as Governors for Schools, Inspiring Governance, or our Local Authority.

Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with data protection legislation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain governance information, or if you have a choice on this.

Storing governance information

Physical and electronic records are held for each governor. Information is held securely on our management information systems and on our school premises. We hold your personal information in line with our retention schedule, available via our school website.

Who we share governance information with

We routinely share governance information with:

- Our Local Authority to support it in meeting its statutory duties
- The Department for Education, e.g statutory data collections (see Appendix One for information on how the DfE uses your information)
- Our Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checks provider

We may have to share your personal information with:

- Third parties, e.g.our IT provider or HR provider (if you are involved in a staff disciplinary procedure, for example)
- The Police or other law enforcement agencies
- Our external auditors
- Our legal advisers/other external consultants.

We do not share information about our governors with anyone without consent, unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

When we share your personal information with third parties, we will always ensure that we share the minimum amount of information necessary for the purpose of the sharing. We will also require them to keep your personal information secure and to treat it in accordance with data protection law.

The lawful basis on which we use governance information

Our school, as a data controller, needs to comply with the UK's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the UK Data Protection Act 2018. We are required to ensure we have a lawful basis under the GDPR for any processing we carry out on personal data.

Under Article 6 of the GDPR the lawful bases we rely on for processing school workforce information are:

We need to comply with a legal obligation, e.g. DfE data returns

We need to meet our public task of running our school and keeping everyone safe

We have a legitimate interest

We have obtained consent to use personal information in a certain way

We need to protect someone's life (vital interests) in an emergency.

Our lawful bases under the GDPR for the purposes listed above in section 3 are as follows:

- A. Manage and develop our governor recruitment (appointment and election) process - public task
- B. Support you in your governance role and meet your training and development needs - public task
- C. Fulfil our function as a school and deliver services to our community - public task

- D. Comply with our general safeguarding obligations - legal obligation, public task
- E. Meet our legal obligations in relation to school governance - legal obligation.

Some personal information requires extra protection because it is considered more sensitive. This includes race, ethnicity, religious beliefs, medical conditions, genetic information and biometric data.

Under Article 9 of the GDPR, if we are processing governors' special category data, we will also rely on one of the following lawful conditions:

- To meet our obligations as a data controller, or those of data subjects, in connection with employment, social security and social protection
- For reasons of substantial public interest, keeping our workforce safe and ensuring equality of opportunity/treatment
- To establish, exercise or defend legal claims
- To protect someone's life (vital interests) in an emergency
- We have explicit consent.

In addition, under the UK's Data Protection Act 2018, we rely on the processing conditions at Schedule 1, part 1, paragraphs 8 and 18.

These relate to the processing of special category data for safeguarding purposes and equality of opportunity. Our Appropriate Policy Document provides more information about this processing. This is available via our school website.

The lawful basis of consent

Whenever we rely on consent, it must be freely given, informed and clear. Consent can be withdrawn at any time by contacting the Headteacher, Mrs Gemma Hillier.

Criminal convictions and offences

We process information about any criminal convictions and offences under Article 10 of the GDPR because we are required by law to carry out enhanced DBS checks as part of our recruitment processes.

The GDPR Article 6 lawful bases we rely to process this data are:

- performance of our public task
- performance of a contract.

In addition, under the UK's Data Protection Act 2018, we rely on the processing conditions at Schedule 1:

- Part 2, para 6(2)(a)
- Part 1, para 1

These relate to the processing of criminal offence data for statutory and employment purposes respectively. See Part 3 of Keeping Children Safe in Education for more information.

Our Appropriate Policy Document provides more information about this processing, this is available via our school website.

Your Data Protection Rights

Under the GDPR you have the right to request access to the information about you that we process (a subject access request). To make a request for your information please contact the school office or Headteacher.

You also have the right to:

- Have your personal data corrected if it is inaccurate or incomplete
- Request the deletion or removal of personal data where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing
- Restrict the processing of your personal data (i.e. permitting its storage but no further processing)
- Object to direct marketing (including profiling) and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics
- Not to be subject to decisions based purely on automated processing where it produces a legal or similarly significant effect upon you.

For more information on how we handle subject access requests, please see our Data Protection Policy, via our school website.

How you can help us

As we have limited staff resources outside of term time, we encourage you to submit subject access requests during term time and not too close to the end of term. This will support us in responding as quickly as possible to your request, which we always want to do.

Any concerns

Appendix One - Department for Education

Information provided by the DfE

The Department for Education (DfE) collects personal data from educational settings and local authorities via various statutory data collections. We are required to share information about our school workforce with the DfE.

For example, we are required to share information about our school employees with the DfE under Section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations and amendments. All data is transferred securely and held by DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls, which meet the current government security policy framework .

How Government uses your data

The workforce data that we lawfully share with the DfE through data collections:

- informs departmental policy on pay and the monitoring of the effectiveness and diversity of the school workforce
- links to school funding and expenditure
- supports 'longer term' research and monitoring of educational policy

Data collection requirements

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

Sharing by the Department

The Department may share information about school employees with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children or the effective deployment of school staff in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure that the confidentiality of personal data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access to it and its use. Decisions on whether DfE releases personal data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is require
- the level and sensitivity of data requested; and
- the arrangements in place to securely store and handle the data

To be granted access to school workforce information, organisations must comply with its strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

How to find out what personal information DfE hold about you

Under the terms of the Data Protection Act 2018, you're entitled to ask the Department:

- if they are processing your personal data
- for a description of the data they hold about yo
- the reasons they're holding it and any recipient it may be disclosed to
- for a copy of your personal data and any details of its source

If you want to see the personal data held about you by the Department, you should make a 'subject access request'. Further information on how to do this can be found within the Department's personal information charter that is published on the Personal information charter - Department for Education - GOV.UK:
